Dear Dirk and Doug,

We are thrilled and excited to present Taylor Marine Center with our most prestigious awards: Grady-White Boats' Admiral's Circle Award and Service Excellence Award for the 2009 model year! This is the twelfth consecutive year that your dealership has won these awards. Earning these awards during these extraordinarily challenging economic times makes this incredible accomplishment even more special. We are truly thankful to your team for creating an outstanding buying and service experience for your customers that resulted in winning this very elite recognition.

This achievement really speaks to the professionalism, personal commitment, heart and passion that the Taylor Marine Center staff has that ensures every single customer is given the very best care possible. When you combine the sales and service experience that your customers are enjoying, Taylor Marine Center is definitely at the highest levels in our industry!

It is our honor to share this special news with our dealers and customers that Taylor Marine Center earned the Admiral's Circle Award and the Service Excellence Award for 2009. Again, congratulations on receiving these awards and we applaud your entire dealership for their contributions in "Together, Delivering the Ultimate Boating Experience"!!! We look forward to 2010 bringing more accolades from your customers and success to your business as we journey together.

Sincere congratulations,

Kris Carroll
President
